DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: It is not clear what shape does a translucent lens have as cited in line 5 or is it a translucent lens cover with a particular shape? Appropriate correction is required.

As best understood the following prior art rejection is given.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1, 2, 3, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Roe et al (US 5,555,161).

Regarding claim 1, Roe discloses a Bi-functional light pipe and display assembly having a front wall and rear wall 32, at least one light emitting diode 30, at least one input structure 40, one light emitting panel 12 and in figure 1, the input structure is conically shape 38 toward the light source.

Regarding claim 2, the display assembly of Roe et al has a light input structure of a pyramid shape (figure 1).

Regarding claim 3, the display assembly of Roe et al shows how the input structure 40 is integral with the panel 12.

Regarding claim 8, Roe does not teach the luminous flux of the light emitting diode however, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a luminous flux of at least 101m, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Regarding claim 9, the panel 12 of Roe et al is a display (column 2, lines 38-41).

Regarding claim 1, Roe et al does not disclose the lens on the light emitting diode as being translucent.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a translucent lens, since applicant has disclosed that using a transparent or translucent lens solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose and it appears that the invention would perform equally with either.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 2875

Claims 4-7 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
